

It's Time for a Review of Our Insurance Portfolio

We haven't met with an insurance agent* in awhile, and as we were looking over our finances as we prepared our taxes, we thought it would be a good idea to get an opinion on our insurance portfolio this year.

Some of the questions we plan to ask the insurance agent* we meet with are: Is our family adequately covered if something happened to my wife or me? Are there any insurance products that can help our financial situation? Is there something we can do now to help us build a retirement savings?

We want to do the right thing to make sure our family is taken care of and we trust a licensed agent's* recommendation rather than trying to do things ourselves.

This story portrays a situation our customers may have faced or could face. It does not represent an actual person.

Talk to me, I can show you how.
